Contract Cancellation Fee Appeal (Formal request to appeal cancellation charges from University Housing)

A Contract Cancellation Fee Appeal is a formal written request to appeal contract cancellation charges outlined in the University Housing Contract Terms and Conditions.

“The Contract Cancellation Fee appeal process is for students who experience significant changes in circumstances beyond their control that prevent them from fulfilling the terms of the University Housing Contract and which cannot be resolved within the University Housing system.” (2023-2024 Terms and Conditions, Section III.F.13)

Submitting this form is NOT a guarantee of release from the contract or the cancellation charges. The request will be reviewed and a decision will be sent to the student’s Illinois State Email. If you would like the email to be sent to a personal email address please include it in the form below.

Contract Cancellation Fee Appeal forms must be returned to ISU Housing Services:

Necessary Documentation

If the primary reason for the request to be released is one of the following, the documentation indicated is required:

1. Medical: A statement must be obtained from the student's personal physician or the University Health Service indicating the nature of the illness, the severity of the illness, when the illness was diagnosed, etc.
2. Financial: Appropriate documentation must be submitted demonstrating how the student's financial situation has changed since signing the residence hall contract.
3. Marriage: A statement is required outlining the date of the marriage, address after the marriage and enrollment status after marriage. A copy of the marriage certificate must also be submitted.
4. Other Reasons: Supporting documentation is helpful in reviewing Contract Release Requests. Students are encouraged to submit supporting documentation whenever possible.
